Other Important Information

Sharing Projects

Sharing projects with other researchers is an option in IRBNet. However, you should NEVER do this with your COI disclosure submissions. COI disclosures are for individuals and should never be shared with anyone else.

IRBNet Board Documents (Approval Letters, Modifications Letters, etc.)

To access these documents log into IRBNet, click the project title, and click REVIEWS. Submissions are listed by package number under the Committee that conducted the review. Locate the package number of the submission and scroll to the Board Documents section. Click the paper icon at the right of the screen to download, view, and save a document.

Communication History - Review Messages and Alerts

On the left-hand menu select the "Messages and Alerts" link underneath "Create a New Package".

The project messages and alerts window will open, and you can view all IRBnet messages and correspondence from your review committee in this list.
